

The LECs operate an "essential facility", and should have to accommodate other ISP firms that wish to purchase access from them. This wholesale provisioning stimulates competition and benefits consumers. The company I currently deal with offers limited service and products and does not seem interested in accommodating our local needs. This is where small business can step in and provide badly needed services, especially in rural areas.